

Abstract

The invention provides a drug combination for the treatment of diseases associated with bone metastasis. The 5 combination provides adenosine or a derivative thereof, a bisphosphonate, and a targeting agent(s) to decrease the signs or symptoms associated with such diseases.